HEALING WOMEN, RESTORING LIVES

Giving Thanks for Your Ongoing Support

The holidays are always a wonderful time to take a breather and reflect on the events of the past year. The Worldwide Fistula Fund spent much of 2011 planning, organizing and streamlining in preparation for the Danja Fistula Center's 2012 opening. Through it all, we have been amazed by the ongoing encouragement we have received from our friends and fans. We give thanks every day for the wonderful and loyal support you show both us and the patients we are helping in Africa.

The following short video shows some of the women that your donations and involvement have benefited. We thought you would enjoy meeting them as much as we have . . .
