

It was extremely exciting to know that these supplies will soon be on the grounds of the Danja Fistula Center, and we'd like to extend a huge thank you to the many organizations and people who donated these supplies including Project Cure, Direct Relief and Teleflex in addition to the team of volunteers who packed the container at the Project Cure warehouse. This contribution will make such a difference in the lives of the women who are suffering from obstetric fistula in Niger.

not snag and providing supervision and comfort.

Mama Aisha at the DFC

We've added a profile to GreatNonprofits and are hoping for more reviews to increase our visibility. From now until November 15, nonprofits with new, positive reviews could win the chance to be on the site's 2012 Top-Rated List. The list will be distributed this holiday season to media like Huffington Post, TakePart and Parade Magazine and 2,000 corporate foundations. One of our generous donors has agreed to give us $5 for every new review of our work posted on the GreatNonprofits website between now and November 15, up to $100. Will you please help us out? It takes just a few minutes. Click here to see our profile and add a review. We appreciate your support!

There are so many ways to support our mission. Please stay tuned to our blog for more news out of Danja, stories of the women we've served and updates on our progress.

To continue supporting the Danja Fistula Center -- and help bring healing and medical care to thousands of women living with the agony of obstetric fistula -- please make a tax-deductible one-time or recurring gift today. We thank you for your incredible generosity.

Connect with the WFF

