"Many people in the U.S. have never heard of obstetric fistulas. But when they learn how devastating the condition can be - they ask what they can do to help. Almost 90% of obstetric fistula cases can be healed through routine surgery."

WFF reached out to One Week to End Fistula (OWEF) Founder, Olivia Bowen, to explain what motivated her and why International Day to End Fistula is so important.

"It started with a book."

"I'd picked up a copy of Nicholas Kristof's Half the Sky, and was gripped by the stories. He's written about WFF for the New York Times. After reading Mahabouba's story, I could not stop thinking about the heartbreak she experienced, and the life she lives now thanks to surgery."

"I decided to found One Week to End Fistula because I wanted to show how manageable it is to fund a surgery."

Today, Olivia exclusively raises funds for Worldwide Fistula Fund, join her!
