Healed at 86-years-old

Tsehaitu suffered 25 years with pelvic organ prolapse, a childbirth injury similar to obstetric fistula in which pelvic organs can push against the vagina and sometimes fall out. Dr. Rahel Nardos, Board Secretary, shares how she met two women who reminded her why she became a surgeon on a recent trip to Ethiopia. Read her new blog to learn about prolapse and how WFF is making a difference.

4th Annual Chicago Fundraiser

An Evening to Restore Dignity returns to Chicago May 2 at Moe's Cantina in River North! The annual cocktail party supports our treatment and empowerment programs. Guests will enjoy a photo booth and raffle prizes (grand prize = Shedd Aquarium tickets, Dineamic gift card & Escape Artistry tickets)!

Executive Director Soja Orłowski will present Our First Trip to the New TERREWODE Women's Hospital with Board Vice Chair Tracy Spitznagle and Board Director Mary Rose Keller. Buy tickets before April 18 for a chance to win a $100 gift card! More info.

GiveBIG Seattle is May 8!

If you're a Greater Seattle Area resident, mark your calendar for May 8! WFF is participating in this year's GiveBIG Seattle, a day neighbors come together to support great causes.

GiveBIG has raised over $113 million since 2011 for hundreds of great nonprofits including One By One. WFF is grateful to be able to represent women and girls with childbirth injuries on this special day.

Event to Spotlight Kenya Program

Continuing One By One's traditional spring fling, WFF will bring An Evening to Restore Dignity to Seattle May 9 at Block 41!

Guests will enjoy survivor-made artisan goods for sale and a raffle -- prizes include day trip to Blake Island for 4 to 6 people! The cocktail party will also feature Our Latest Update on Kenya Programming presented by Board Director Kathleen Davis, Committee Member Misti McDowell, and Executive Director Soja Orłowski, who just returned from a trip to Kenya last week! Buy tickets by April 20 for an early bird discount! More info.
