Solidarity groups save survivor from homelessness

All 11 of our solidarity groups in Kenya came together to help one of their members when the roof of her house collapsed. They donated their own time and money to build their fellow survivor a new home.

Their solidarity caught the attention of the community, inspiring others to start doing things a little differently.

Coulibaly reclaims her dignity

Coulibaly thought nothing would ever be worse than losing her baby after 2 painful days of prolonged, obstructed labor. Then the dripping started.

Unwanted by everyone she knew, Coulibaly left home. Thanks to you, she found treatment through our on-the-ground partners in Burkina Faso.
