

WORLDWIDE FISTULA FUND:

A history of healing women, restoring lives and preventing childbirth injuries.

1975

2020

1975
 Founder Dr. Wall begins anthropological field research among Hausa people of northern Nigeria as Fulbright-Hayes Fellow

2003
 Renamed Worldwide Fistula Fund

2008
 Break ground on Danja Fistula Center, partner with SIM in Niger

2007
 Funding treatment and doctor training in Ghana, Liberia, Sierra Leone, Nigeria, Togo, Benin

2010
 Launch partnership with Uganda's TERREWODE

2012
 Grand opening of Danja Fistula Center (DFC Niger)

2013
 Launch enhanced OB-GYN training program (MMEC) at Mekelle University in Ethiopia

2013
 Featured in New York Times' "Where Young Women Find Healing and Hope" by Nicholas Kristof

2015
 Launch Ethiopia's first Urogynecology Fellowship Program in partnership with Hamlin Fistula Ethiopia, Mekelle University, and Oregon Health & Science University

2017
 Launch physical therapy advanced education program support in Ethiopia

2017
 Launch holistic services in Burkina Faso with local partners ARENA and Fondation RAMA

2018
 Dr. Wall publishes "Tears for My Sisters: The Tragedy of Obstetric Fistula" and donates 100% of royalties to WFF

2018
 TERREWODE receives largest grant ever: A 5-year, $675,000 grant to help triple the number of women treated in Uganda by 2020

2018
 Launch critical care training in Ethiopia to support complex surgeries/deliveries

2019
 Publish scientific paper about Urogynecology Fellowship Program, helping institutions across Africa copy our success

2018
 Seattle-based fistula organization One By One merges into WFF, programming expands to Kenya

LET'S END FISTULA INITIATIVE

2019
 TERREWODE Women's Community Hospital opens in Uganda

2019
 Launch safe motherhood curriculum in Kenya

2020
 600 women receive surgery and reintegration services as TERREWODE hospital achieves full capacity

